Brittney Tester

Starting her career with a keen interest in product knowledge and education, Brittney quickly became known for the passion and enthusiasm she brings to her classes. She leads with a desire to empower others through new skills and give them the additional knowledge and confidence to succeed. Through 7 years with Z.one Concept, Brittney travels nationally for trainings and events. Brittney is a North American Braiding Ambassador and Pro Artist team member. She excels at both cutting and coloring behind the chair but her true love lies in styling.
