Gina is a fourth generation hairstylist. She started her career in South Jersey and has been in the industry for 9 years. She fell in love with education and became an educator with L'ANZA Healing Haircare, working her way up to become part of their Artistic Design Team. She has moved around from Philadelphia to New York and now Minneapolis with the opportunity to learn from many top Artists of the industry. She has been published in multiple magazines, won 2016 North American Hairstyling Award for best Team. Worked in Fashion week for New York, Philadelphia, Bulgaria, and now Minneapolis! Her Platform work has taken her overseas to do International education. Now with her new home in Minneapolis, her goal is to help her community not simply by doing hair, but by helping people feel beautiful.
