Powerhouse educator and hair color authority Leah Freeman captivates audiences around the world with her unique brand of authentic, real-world education. As Global Color Director she is the driving force behind L'ANZA color development and has built a reputation for delivering meaningful and inspired education from the platform to the salon.

Leah's editorial work took home trophies in 2017 and 2018 at Behind the Chair's prestigious #ONESHOT awards in the Creative Color category, making her the first artist in #ONESHOT history to ever win in the same category, two years in a row. Leah's original designs have appeared in dozens of print and digital publications and her seasonal color trend forecasts have been quoted in consumer heavyweights like Allure and PopSugar.

At home in Illinois, Leah is the owner of Fuse Salon & Spa, a L'ANZA Healing Center located in historic Frankfort.

Independent. Authentic. Dedicated.
