

Cutting for the Edge with Color

with Michael Polsinelli and Amanda Quarshie

Tuesday, November 19, 2019
9:00 AM - 5:00 PM

This course aims to stimulate and unlock the day to day mindset from working in the salon. We create an inspirational approach without losing the structural aspect of the haircut. We will be utilizing technique to push these haircuts to the limit combining the elements of line, balance and creative color. Color will be key in setting apart these designed haircuts because we use color to make a statement as well as complimenting the overall look.

*Rocco Altobelli University, 2nd floor
