Leah Freeman

Leah Freeman joins L'ANZA Healing Haircare with nearly 20 years of exceptional industry experience. From in-salon education to editorial and hair fashion design, Leah has traveled the world as a platform artist and trainer. Her designs have appeared in dozens of industry publications, including Modern Salon, American Salon, Salon Today, and Behind the Chair. Celebrated as a worldwide color authority, Leah has been honored by the salon industry as one of the Top 20 Most Recognized Colorists. She is known for identifying the season's hottest color palettes, and single-handedly building powerful educational tools to excite and electrify colorists at all levels. A salon owner in Chicago, Leah has a clear understanding of how to foster creativity, while building a successful salon business. She was named Citizen of the Year by her community, and also recognized by her peers as a "40 Under Forty", for outstanding achievement in her field. As L'ANZA Healing Color Director, Leah will share her passion, talent and creative vision, while helping to grow and inspire salon professionals wherever she goes.
