

Coming September 17th to MN/WI Metro Area

Roch Lemay

International educator and celebrity colorist, Roch Lemay counts 30 years in the industry. Based in Montreal at the NAHA award-winning Salon Pure, Roch exudes an unequivocal passion for his craft, and it shows during each Davines course he teaches. Whether propelling colour creativity or sharing business growth secrets, Roch leaves students with an elevated colour expertise.

Winning the NAHA for North American Colorist of the Year and the Contessa for Canadian Colourist of the Year, Roch is recognized for his vision, believing that we can “manipulate the energy of colors and transform the hair fiber – reaching a new dimension that will create signature looks for each client.”

Anna Pacitto

Strongly encouraged to pursue a career in professional hairstyling by her father, Frederico Pacitto, himself a barber and seasoned entrepreneur, Anna Pacitto has soared to the highest levels of international recognition in hairstyling, thanks to her unbridled creativity and unparalleled techniques. Owner of several hair salons, co-owner and artistic director of the prestigious Pure salon and Pure Academy, Anna Pacitto feeds her imagination through an appreciation for art, culture, fashion and cinema. Her unique style and artistic vision in hairdressing has helped her reach the most coveted awards in globally by world-class artists.

Currently Artistic Director for Davines North America, which leads her to offer cutting-edge education to sold-out classes wherever she goes, Anna Pacitto was also Artistic Director of L'Oréal Professionnel Canada for 17 years.

Class Description and Details to Follow