Isabella Lachance

A creative and dynamic hair professional, Isabelle Lechance counts close to three decades in the business. Her experience ranges from salon and academy owner to gifted platform artist to seasoned Salon Pure stylist with a keen talent for teaching. Her career highlights include owning five salons and three academies, earning recognition as a Canadian champion, and serving as a member of the Canada Team for Hair World. Isabelle exudes a passion for education that is evident in each Davines course she leads - making her a requested and respected artist both on and off the stage. Hair professionals who take her courses often comment about the benefits to their professional lives and clients, plus her ability to encourage growth in a supportive, yet informative environment.
