This campaign celebrates a metallic reflective color palette while taking cues from the natural world. The deep rust-colored rocks, the whitewashed stones, the bronze sand, and the pearlescent reflections dancing upon the water's surface bring everything to life.

David Sanabria

David Sanabria is a color specialist at Marin Hair Co in Logan Square, Chicago. Taking inspiration from comic book superheroes and anime, he aims to create beautiful hair with a personalized edge for each client. After completing cosmetology school, an apprenticeship, and getting his chair, David continued his love of education by becoming a Davines educator in 2016. Through his commitment to both his craft and training, he earned his role as Regional Master Trainer with Davines in 2018. He is known to conduct his classes with ease and playfulness, and in doing so, David hopes to raise the bar for technique and creativity within the industry.
